If-clauses type I

Work with your partner. Fold the sheet along the vertical line. Complete the sentences with the correct form of the verb. Partner A starts.	Work with your partner. Fold the sheet along the vertical line. Complete the sentences with the correct form of the verb. Partner A starts.
Partner A	Partner B
If the weather (be) fine, we (have) a barbecue.	[If the weather is fine, we will have a barbecue.]
[If my parents agree, I will go on a vacation to France.]	If my parents (agree), I (go) on a vacation to France.
I (not object) if you (want) to go there alone.	[I will not/won't object if you want to go there alone.]
[If you have enough time, you can help me with my homework.]	If you (have) enough time, you (can/help) me with my homework.
(May) I go out tonight if I (do) all the chores?	[May I go out tonight if I do all the chores?]
[How can I know this if you don't tell me the facts?]	How (can) I know this if you (not tell) me the facts?
Why (shall) I believe in what you say now if you always (lie) at me?	[Why should I believe in what you say now if you always lie at me?]
And now, translate the following if-clauses type I into English.	And now, translate the following if-clauses type I into English.
Wenn du morgen kommst, spielen wir Fußball.	[If you come tomorrow, we'll play football.]
[The cat will be fine/healthy if you take her to the vet's.]	Der Katze wird gesund werden, wenn du sie zum Tierarzt bringst.
Wenn du dein Zimmer aufräumst, können wir einen Ausflug in die Stadt machen,	[If you tidy up your room, we can make a trip downtown.]
[If we don't run faster, we won't be able to win the race.]	Wenn wir nicht schneller laufen, können wir das Rennen nicht gewinnen.
Soll ich dich anrufen, falls die Karten für das Theater ausverkauft sind?	[Shall I give you a call, if the theater tickets are sold out?]
[If you pay attention in class, you will get a good grade.]	Wenn du im Unterricht aufpasst, wirst du eine gute Note bekommen.
Complete the sentences using your own ideas. Your partner corrects, if need be.	Complete the sentences using your own ideas. Your partner corrects, if need be.
If we win the match…	If he wins a billion dollars …
If you help me with my English homework…	If I get a good grade in math …
If my parents allow me to go on a vacation…	If I wash my father's car…
If we walk up this mountain…	If I finish this exercise…
Hooray! We're all done. And if we do the exercise again, there won't be any mistakes!!!	Hooray! We're all done. And if we do the exercise again, there won't be any mistakes!!!