

Sentence-building, key

Example

If you come early,	we – watch the parade.	If you come early, we will watch the parade.
---------------------------	-------------------------------	---

Make conditional clauses type I using these ideas.

If-clause	Main clause
If the sun shines,	we will go to the swimming pool
If my father is at home,	he will help me do my math.
If your parents do not allow you to go out,	we will just stay at home.
If Lucy is in the competition,	we will be happy.
If we go to England this summer,	I will pick up lots of English words.
If the weather is hot tomorrow,	I will wear my new t-shirt.
If my parents do not give me more pocket money,	I will ask my uncle.
If we do not win the race,	we will be very sad.
If you are not on time,	we will miss the train.
If you have time tomorrow,	you can help me.
If he practices hard,	he will do better.
If she has enough money,	she will buy a new dress.
If I ask my parents,	they will give me the money.