

Trouble spots: when vs. if

Additional exercises
--

Please fill the gaps with either if or when!

1. My car is at the garage at the moment, but I've got it back I can help you take your old glass to the bottle bank.
2. I'll start working on my project I've finished lunch.
3. I might see Tom this afternoon. I do I'll ask him to phone you.
4. My dog doesn't like strangers. my parents came round the other day she even tried to bite my dad.
5. My old computer probably can't be repaired. the computer people tell me I need a new one, can I ask you for some technical advice?
6. I've done some football betting. Liverpool win the championship this year I'll be £200 the richer.
7. Please let me know you've finished.
8. The Tower of London isn't included in our tour. you want to see it, please get an additional ticket.
9. I don't think Ray is foolish enough to publish this article. But he does I'm sure they will sue him.
10. It's only a few hundred metres more to my house now. And we get there I'll put the kettle on right away.
- 11..... you have read the text please answer questions 1 and 2!
12. Look at those clouds! it starts to rain before we get home we'll be soaked!
13. I could do with some help in the kitchen. You can still read your book we have finished doing the dishes.
14. What were you doing the murder happened?