

Listening Comprehension

First broadcast 21 August 2013 / Yasmin Hai speaks about Muslim radicalisation.

Assignment

Download this file onto your MP3-player.

Listen from minute 01.11 up to about minute 9.00 as often as you need to and answer the questions below in complete sentences.

- 1) What do you learn about “Sid”?
- 2) What happened on “07/07” in 2005?
- 3) What reason was given officially?
- 4) What does the speaker make of this reason?
- 5) In what kind of environment did the speaker grow up in?
- 6) What two kinds of families emerged?
- 7) Whose children turned violent later on?
- 8) How did some families react to their children coming of age?
- 9) How did the “conflicted” identities of young Asian women show?
- 10) How did the “conflicted” identities of young Asian men show?
- 11) What were both women and men looking for?
- 12) Give three arguments that the speaker was confronted with?
- 13) How did the new outlook on life of the speaker’s friends change their looks?
- 14) What did their new identity give them?

Download task and key from www.englisch-bw.de, Hörverstehen, “Muslim radicalisation”

Listening Comprehension

First broadcast 21 August 2013 / Yasmin Hai speaks about Muslim radicalisation.

Assignment

Download this file onto your MP3-player.

Listen from minute 01.11 up to about minute 9.00 as often as you need to and answer the questions below in complete sentences.

- 1) What do you learn about “Sid”?
- 2) What happened on “07/07” in 2005?
- 3) What reason was given officially?
- 4) What does the speaker make of this reason?
- 5) In what kind of environment did the speaker grow up in?
- 6) What two kinds of families emerged?
- 7) Whose children turned violent later on?
- 8) How did some families react to their children coming of age?
- 9) How did the “conflicted” identities of young Asian women show?
- 10) How did the “conflicted” identities of young Asian men show?
- 11) What were both women and men looking for?
- 12) Give three arguments that the speaker was confronted with?
- 13) How did the new outlook on life of the speaker’s friends change their looks?
- 14) What did their new identity give them?

Download task and key from www.englisch-bw.de, Hörverstehen, “Muslim radicalisation”

Listening Comprehension

First broadcast 21 August 2013 / Yasmin Hai speaks about Muslim radicalisation.

Assignment

Download this file onto your MP3-player.

Listen from minute 01.11 up to about minute 9.00 as often as you need to and answer the questions below in complete sentences.

- 1) What do you learn about “Sid”?
- 2) What happened on “07/07” in 2005?
- 3) What reason was given officially?
- 4) What does the speaker make of this reason?
- 5) In what kind of environment did the speaker grow up in?
- 6) What two kinds of families emerged?
- 7) Whose children turned violent later on?
- 8) How did some families react to their children coming of age?
- 9) How did the “conflicted” identities of young Asian women show?
- 10) How did the “conflicted” identities of young Asian men show?
- 11) What were both women and men looking for?
- 12) Give three arguments that the speaker was confronted with?
- 13) How did the new outlook on life of the speaker’s friends change their looks?
- 14) What did their new identity give them?

Download task and key from www.englisch-bw.de, Hörverstehen, “Muslim radicalisation”