

Listening Comprehension TEST: Yasmin Hai on the radicalization of young Muslims
 BBC Radio 4 'Four Thought', 21 August 2013

0.	Example: This programme is from...	<input type="checkbox"/>	BBC Learning
		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BBC Radio 4
		<input type="checkbox"/>	BBC World
		<input type="checkbox"/>	the BBC World Service
1.	The young man called "Sid" ...	<input type="checkbox"/>	seemed to have been influenced by radical youth workers.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	seemed to be well-integrated.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	was a left-wing radical.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	was a political activist.
2.	On 07/07/2005 four suicide bombers...	<input type="checkbox"/>	destroyed an underground station.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	killed 52 people in London.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	killed 52 tourists in London.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	planted seven bombs in London.
3.	Mohammed Sidique Khan seems to have been...	<input type="checkbox"/>	forced into taking part in the attacks.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	the attacker who blew himself up first.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	the one to build the bombs.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	the one to organize things behind the scenes.
4.	The official explanation for attacks given by the terrorists was...	<input type="checkbox"/>	a lack of education and too much poverty.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	a perverted sense of justice.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	the cultural dominance of the western world.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	western policies and cruelties committed by the west.
5.	Yasmin Hai grew up in an "Asian community" in the 70s.	<input type="checkbox"/>	true
		<input type="checkbox"/>	false
6.	List the two kinds of families that Yasmin Hai believes emerged from this environment:	—	.....
		—	.....
7.	It was the children of the..... who turned violent later on.
8.	Young men and women of Hai's generation felt at home in both the English and the Asian culture.	<input type="checkbox"/>	true
		<input type="checkbox"/>	false
9.	When their children came of age, some Asian families reacted by...	<input type="checkbox"/>	locking them up at home.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	re-introducing old customs like arranged marriages.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	sending them to relatives in their home countries.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	suddenly becoming very religious.

10.	The "conflicted" identities of young Asian men showed in their...	<input type="checkbox"/>	becoming delinquent.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	rioting.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	studying hard.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	studying their parents' culture.
11.	Both young men and women were actually looking for...	<input type="checkbox"/>	an authentic identity of their own.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	religious enlightenment.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	the perfect partner.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	wisdom and wealth.
12.	Tick the one claim that the speaker did NOT hear in discussions with her friends: "Islam...	<input type="checkbox"/>	praises sex between husband and wife."
		<input type="checkbox"/>	had the first modern scientists."
		<input type="checkbox"/>	has equal rights for women."
		<input type="checkbox"/>	is morally superior to clubbing and drug taking."
13.	This new outlook on life made Yasmin Hai's friends change their looks. The men ..... and the women .....
14.	For many of these young people, radical Islam was a way to feel morally superior to their parents.	<input type="checkbox"/>	true
		<input type="checkbox"/>	false
15.	When their children turned religious, many parents were not worried because they...	<input type="checkbox"/>	did not want to see their children taking drugs.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	generally rejected western lifestyles.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	had already given up on their children.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	shared their children's political opinions.
16.	Radical preachers failed to give those alienated young people a structure for their lives.	<input type="checkbox"/>	true
		<input type="checkbox"/>	false
17.	Radical Islam prevented these young people from taking revenge on their local communities.	<input type="checkbox"/>	true
		<input type="checkbox"/>	false
18.	When looking for the causes of Muslim radicalization, Yasmin Hai says, western societies tend to ..... rather than .....
19.	Yasmin Hai claims that once young radicals get married and have children they will become more moderate.	<input type="checkbox"/>	true
		<input type="checkbox"/>	false
20.	In short, in Yasmin Hai's view the true reasons why young Muslims turn radical are...	<input type="checkbox"/>	nothing we know anything about.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	psychological rather than political.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	purely religious.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	the mosques young Muslims go to.