

LC KEY "All Things Considered: Ebola Outbreak Presents Special Challenges For U.S. Military", NPR audio file with a transcript

Download task from: www.englisch-bw.de

Read the questions. Then listen to the recording. There will be a brief break. Then listen again and check and/or complete your answers.

I. True or false? – Consider these statements. (1 credit each)	true	false
1. Haiti was at the epicentre of the last Ebola outbreak.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
2. General Keen was the first army officer to travel to Haiti to coordinate the military help effort. (Note: The general was in Haiti when Ebola broke out there.)	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
3. Quickly, the US army took over the management of Haiti's major airport.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

II. Complete this sentence. (2 credits)

Soon after arriving in Haiti, the US army supplied the country with food and water

III. Tick the correct answer(s). More than one answer may be correct. (2 credits)

4. In Liberia, the US military will help to	a	<input type="checkbox"/>	fly victims out of the country.
	b	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	build hospitals.
	c	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	teach medical staff.
	d	<input type="checkbox"/>	distribute medication.

IV. Give short answers. (2 credits each)

5. What made the aid effort in Haiti easier?

It was not as far away and ships were available to operate from.

6. What challenges are to be faced in Liberia? (name two)

- It is a long way off / an ocean away
- The base in Senegal needs to be set up
- Essential supplies such as food, water and fuel will have to be taken there

Your score: _____ / 11 credits