

Crash – Listening/viewing comprehension (Sequence 00:00 – 04:45)

I. True or false?

	true	false
1. L.A. is so crowded that people can't help crashing into one other.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
2. People can easily get in touch with each other.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
3. The couple's car has spun around twice.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

II. Complete these sentences.

- I need to see your registration and insurance.
- I stop when I see a line of cars stopped in front of me.

III. Tick the one correct answer.

The Asian woman	a	<input type="checkbox"/>	does not have a driver's license.
	b	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	has hit the tail end of the other car.
	c	<input type="checkbox"/>	is too small to see over the steering wheel.

IV. True or false?

	true	false
1. The police officer's behavior shows racism.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
2. The Asian woman offends the other woman.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. One of the detectives is Mexican.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. The detectives were called to investigate a car accident.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
5. The African-American is sad because he could not smoke a cigarette.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

V. What exactly happened at the "crash site"? Make an intelligent guess.

Individual responses:

- Another car crash involving a young person ("dead kid")
- A crime involving a young person (drugs, gun violence, street gangs, ...)
- The detective seems to be shocked, maybe he recognizes the dead person.
- ...