

| True or false. Correct the wrong sentences in your own words. | | 1 point each |
|--|-------------------------------------|---|
| | true | false |
| 1. Parvez goes into his son's room to check if it is tidy. | | No, he goes there to search for clues why his son has changed |
| Reference: p. 195 l. 2-3. "... only to seek clues. ... was getting tidier." | | |
| 2. Ali has parted from his old toys and clothes, because he feels he has outgrown them and wants to buy new ones. | | No, he has also thrown away new books and clothes. |
| Reference: p. 195 l. 9-10 "... not only old ... new books and fashionable clothes..." | | |
| 3. Parvez wants to talk to his son but does not muster the courage to do so. | ✓ | |
| Reference: p. 195 l. 14-16 "... Parvez was unable... afraid of his son." | | |
| 4. Parvez has always gone to great lengths to offer Ali a good education. | ✓ | |
| Reference: p. 196 l. 5-6 "... for Ali, he had worked ... paying for his education..." | | |
| 5. Parvez immediately brings up his son's behavior with some sympathetic colleagues. | | No, he does not dare talk to his colleagues because he is afraid of their putting the blame on him. |
| Reference: p. 196 l. 23-25 "...unable to discuss ... they would blame him..." | | |
| 6. When Parvez finally tells his colleagues about Ali, they suspect Ali of financing his drug addiction by selling his belongings. | ✓ | |
| Reference: p.197 l.45-46 "...Ali was taking drugs...to pay for them." | | |
| Multiple choice: Tick the correct box. | | 1 point each |
| 7. He is happy to find Bettina in his car because | <input type="checkbox"/> | she is a good customer. |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> | he can spend the night with her. |
| | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | he can tell her all about his problems and dreams. |
| Reference: p.198 l.3-4 "...Parvez had talked to her...she talked about hers." | | |

| | | |
|------------------------------|-------------------------------------|---|
| 8. Parvez finds out that Ali | <input type="checkbox"/> | is making money from selling his possessions. |
| | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | has started to practice his faith. |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> | looks unhealthy because he has given up sports. |

Reference: p. 199 l.52 "The boy was praying."

| | | |
|---|-------------------------------------|--|
| 9. Parvez has come to steer clear of religion because | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | he had had bad experiences. |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> | his colleagues made jokes about the Mullahs. |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> | he wanted to integrate into English society. |

Reference: p. 199 l.58 "After this indignity...avoided all religions."

| | | |
|--|-------------------------------------|--|
| 10. After the evening at the restaurant Parvez | <input type="checkbox"/> | finally talks things over with his wife. |
| | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | wants to give up on Ali. |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> | is able to convince Ali of his views. |

Reference: p. 204 l.12 "...the hardest thing....I'm going to do it."

Complete the sentences in your own words.

1 point each

11. Unlike Parvez who loves England and wants to fit in, Ali is disgusted with Western civilization and materialism. p. 202 l.10,14.

12. Being drunk Parvez stumbles leaving the restaurant, but makes no move to help him up. p. 203 l.53.

13. Parvez does not want to give his son more love, because he thinks Ali is ungrateful and not worth the effort. p. 204 l. 19.

14. Although Parvez has started to grow a beard, his son does not seem to appreciate this. p. 204, l.31.

Match the sentence halves. There are two too many

1 point each.

| | |
|--|---|
| | b) children have to obey their parents. |
| 15. Parvez wants Ali to accept the fact that | f) he is unable to communicate. |
| 16. Ali is convinced that | e) he has to sit in the back seat of the taxi. |
| 17. In the taxi Ali reacts angrily because | a) children have to respect their parents. |
| 18. Parvez beats up his son because | c) western life affects religion in a negative way. |
| | d) his father treats a prostitute like a friend. |

15a) p. 205, l.50 ; 16c) p.203, l.60 ; 17d) p.206, l.22; 18f) p.207 l.40-41.