

The Ancien Régime

The Bourbon kings' fleur-de-lis flag

*His Majesty
King Louis XVI
of France
(Antoine-François Callet, 1781)*

© Jan Kulok -  www.geschichte-bw.de

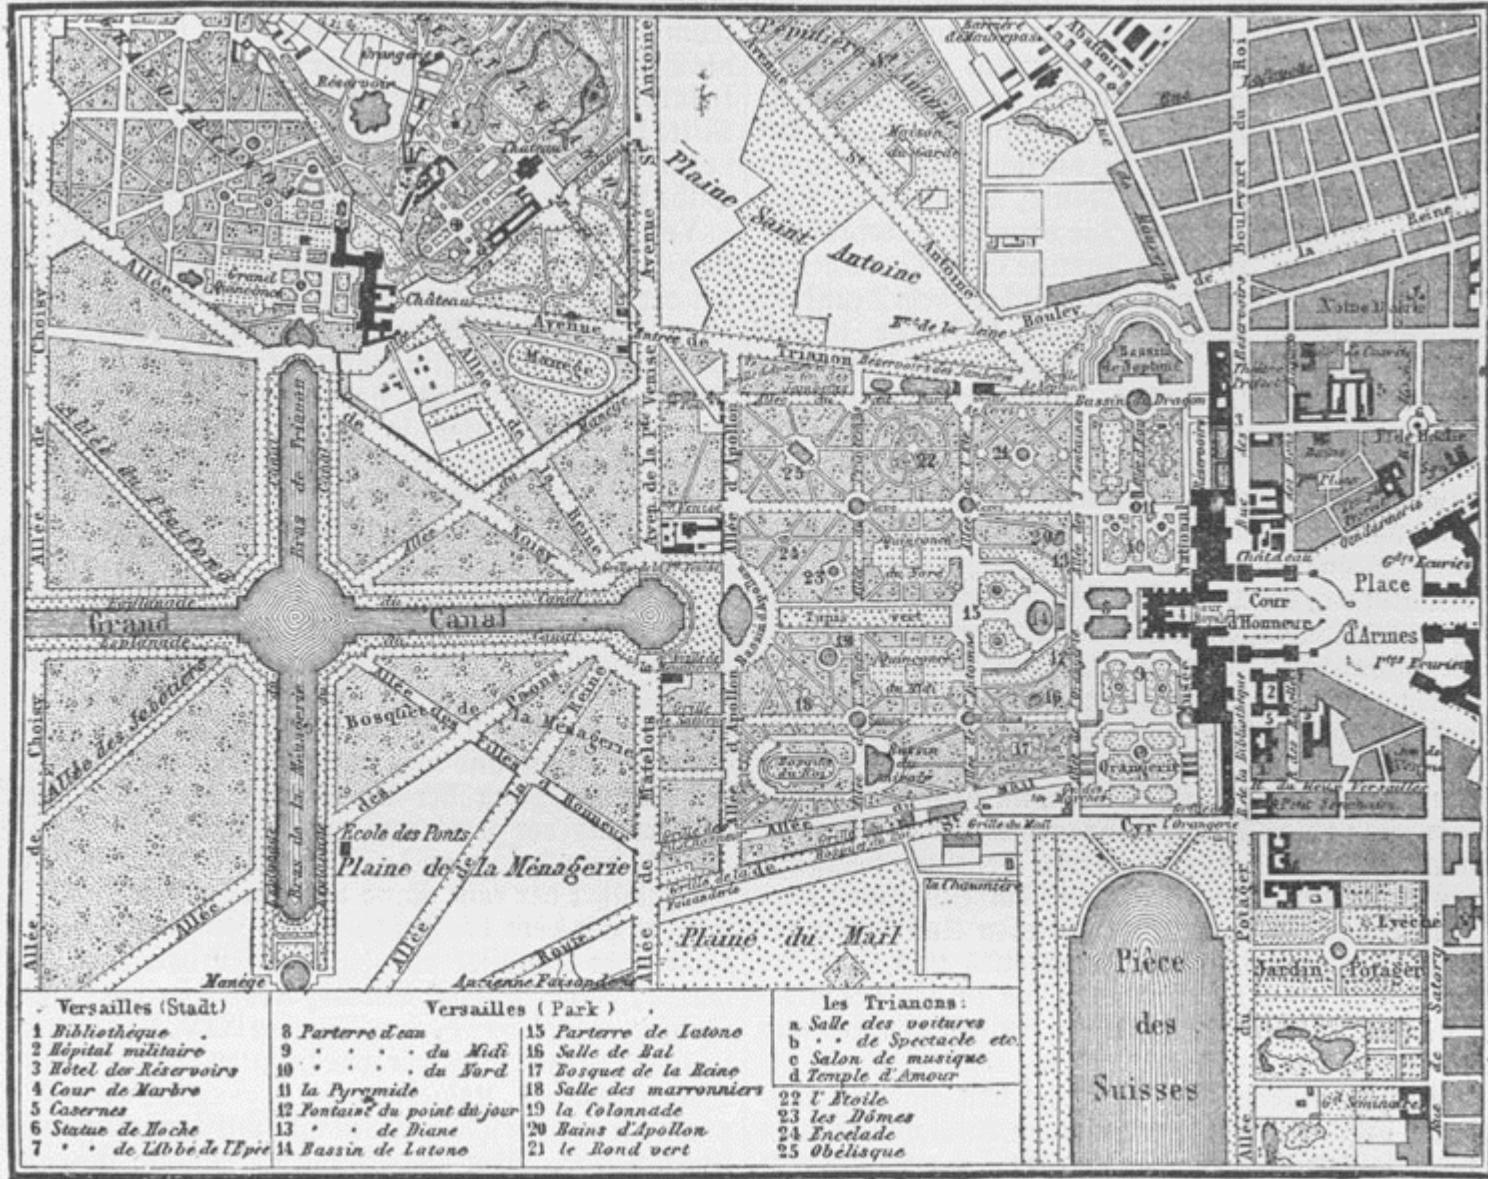

*Her Majesty
Queen
Marie Antoinette
of France*

(Joseph Ducreux, 1769)

The Palace of Versailles
(Pierre Patel, ca. 1668)

The Palace of Versailles

Source: https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/File%3AKarte_Schloss_Versailles_MKL1888.png

The Palace indoors and ...

... outdoors

Sources: https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/File%3AChateau_Versailles_Galerie_des_Glaces.jpg by Myrabella; https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/File%3ALe_ch%C3%A2teau_de_versailles_vue_en_perspective.jpg by Esafia; https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/File%3ALit_de_Louis_XIV.jpg by Blood Destructor; https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/File%3AP1030357_\(5015846430\).jpg.jpg) by von Ricardo Túlio Gadelman from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil (P1030357 Uploaded by Marcus Cyron)

The France of the Ancien Régime

Copyright Histoire-Généalogie.com

This is how just a few (royal) people lived:

The Royal Family (1781) by an anonymous painter

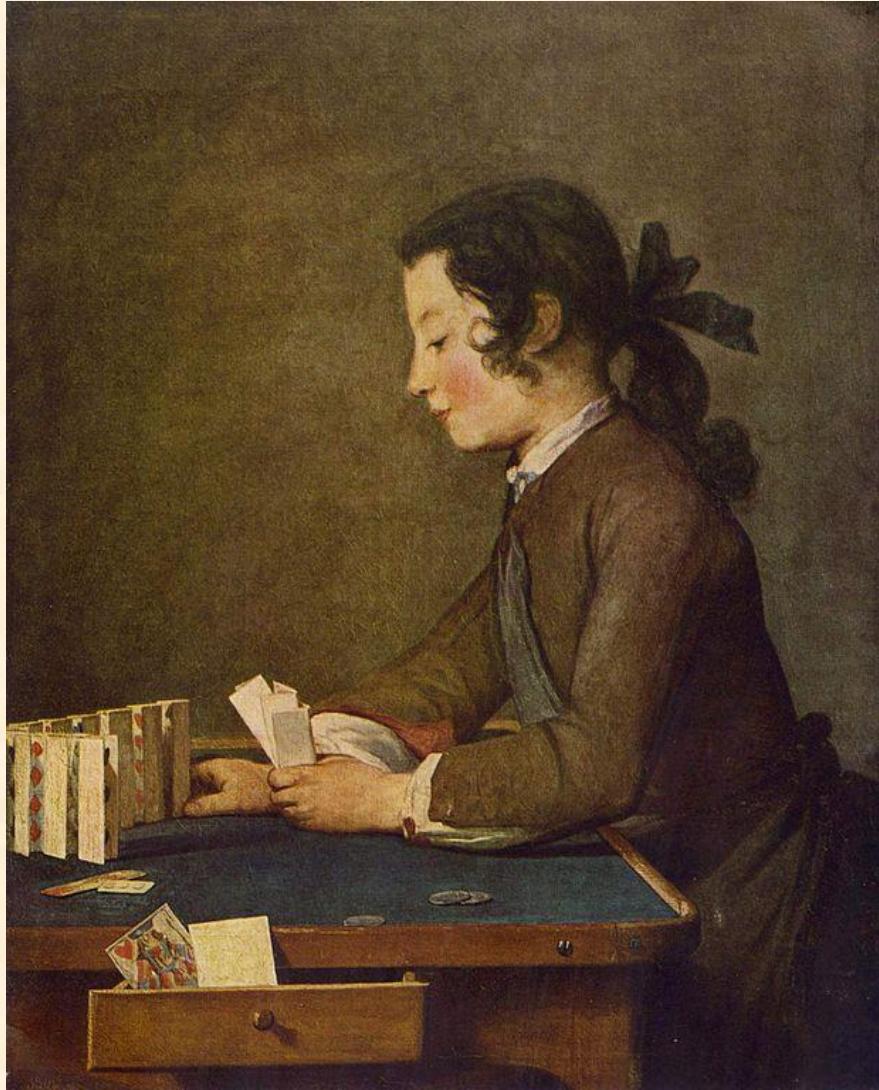

This is how an increasing number of people lived:

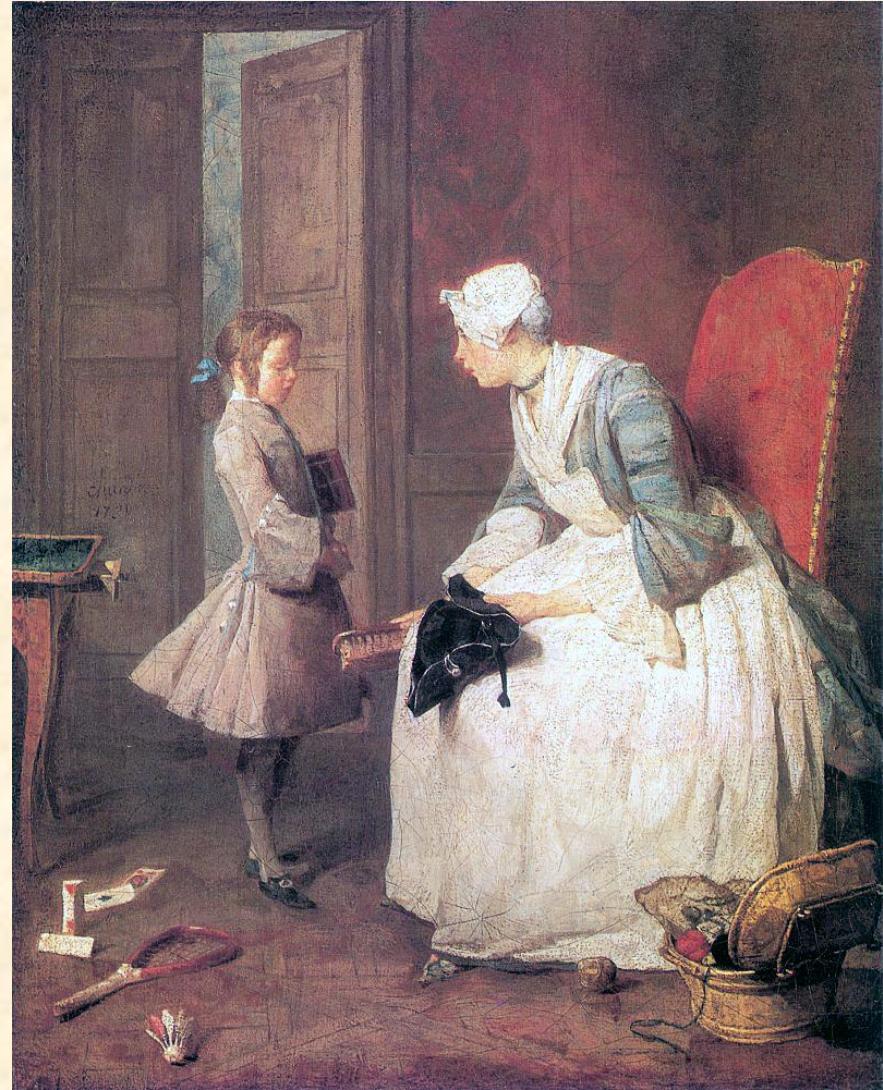

Louis Le Nain, The Cart, 1641

This is how an increasing number of people lived:

Jean-Baptiste Chardin, The Card Castle, 1737

Jean-Baptiste Chardin, The Governess, 1739

This is the structure of French society in the mid-18th century:

The Three Estates

First

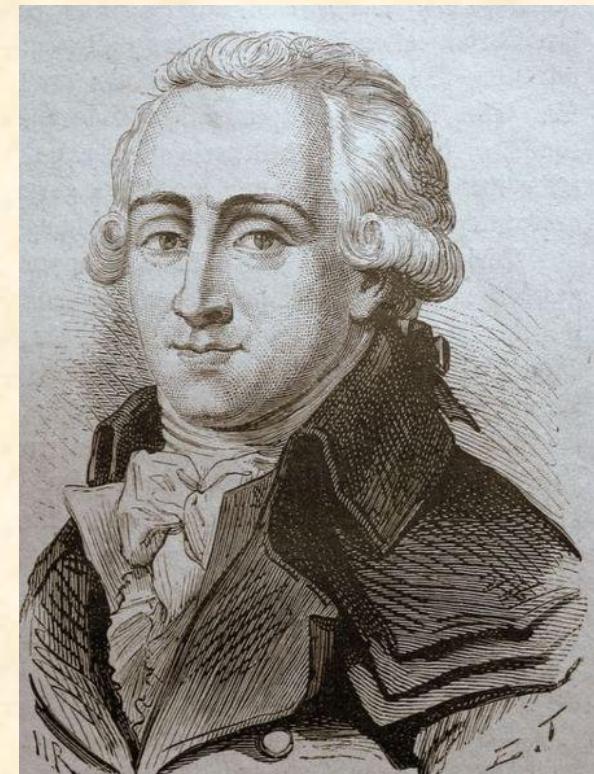

Archbishop Brienne de Toulouse

Second

Duchess of Polignac

Third

Georges Couthon, lawyer