

How revolutionary were these revolutionary events?

20 June 17989 – the Tennis Court Oath → the National Assembly wants to work out a new constitution; the creation of France as a nation of the people

14 July 1789 Fall of the Bastille → Parisian masses attack the state prison (using violence)

4 August 1789 → The National Assembly abolishes all privileges etc.

26 August 1789 → The Declaration of the Rights of Man

Tasks:

- 1) Explain the revolutionary character of each event.
- 2) Rank them from most to least revolutionary.
- 3) Explain your decision.

© Jan Kulok -  www.geschichte-bw.de

How revolutionary were these revolutionary events?

20 June 17989 – the Tennis Court Oath → the National Assembly wants to work out a new constitution; the creation of France as a nation of the people

14 July 1789 Fall of the Bastille → Parisian masses attack the state prison (using violence)

4 August 1789 → The National Assembly abolishes all privileges etc.

26 August 1789 → The Declaration of the Rights of Man

Tasks:

- 1) Explain the revolutionary character of each event.
- 2) Rank them from most to least revolutionary.
- 3) Explain your decision.

© Jan Kulok -  www.geschichte-bw.de