

If-clauses type II

If-clauses type II
Work with your partner. Fold the sheet along the vertical line. Complete the sentences with the correct form of the verb. Partner A starts.
Partner A	Partner B
If I (be) a bird, I (be able) to fly.	[If I were a bird, I would be able to fly.]
[If the weather was fine, we could go swimming.]	If the weather (be) fine, we (can go) swimming.
If I (miss) the train, my parents (be) angry.	[If I missed the train, my parents would be angry.]
[If we had more money, we would go on a long vacation.]	If we (have) more money, we (go) on a long vacation.
If he (be able) to come early, we (go) to the restaurant before the show.	[If he were able to come early, we would go to the restaurant before the show.]
[If she knew the right way, we would not arrive late.]	If she (know) the right way, we (not arrive) late.
If my boyfriend (win) a million dollars, the two of us (travel) around the world.	[If my boyfriend won a million dollars, the two of us would travel around the world.]
[If you spoke better French, you would not misunderstand the people so frequently.]	If you (speak) better French, you (not misunderstand) the people so frequently.
If they (run) faster, they (can) join the team.	[If they ran faster, they could join the team.]
[He would not sing any better, if he took singing lessons.]	He (not sing) any better, if he (take) singing lessons.
If you (show) more gumption, you (succeed) easily.	[If you showed more gumption, you would easily succeed.]
[I would be glad to help, if only you were not so nasty.]	I (be) glad to help, if only you (not be) so nasty.
My parents (be able) to go on a vacation, if they (not have) to take care of the farm.	[My parents would be able to go on a vacation, if they did not have to take care of the farm.]
[If we ate less and worked out more regularly, we would not be overweight.]	If we (eat) less and (work out) more regularly, we (not be) overweight.
I (ask) for my money back, if my new cellphone (not work) after just one week.	[I would ask for my money back, if my new cellphone did not work after just one week.]