Sentence building key

Example

If I – work harder	I – get better grades.	If I had worked harder, I would have got better grades.

Make conditional clauses type III using these ideas.

If-clause	Main clause
If my parents had not given me some money,	I would not have been able to afford the new car.
If my father had listened to the radio,	he would have heard about the accident earlier.
If we had answered the door,	we would not have missed our friends.
If Michael had not swallowed the fish bone,	he would not have needed to go to the hospital.
If my girlfriend and I had gone to the US,	we would have visited all the national parks in the west.
If his parents had talked to each other more openly,	they would not have got a divorce.
If she had received the letter,	she would have understood the problem.
If he had been able to swim,	he would not have drowned.
If her boyfriend had proposed to her,	she would have been happy.
If they had come earlier,	they could have had dinner with us.
?	?