

Woof woof and hello!

That's me – I'm Winston and I am a school dog.

Today, I tell you a bit about my school. My school is a big school there are lots of students, teachers, and a lot of interesting rooms. My favourite room is the library because there's my basket. There are a lot of books, too. There are many classrooms, but there aren't any baskets for me. There is one classroom with sofa that is great. There is a garden behind the school and when it is warm outside there are tables and chairs for the students, but there isn't a pool – that's a pity (= das ist schade) because I like to swim. Is there a pool in your garden?

i Hier im Text kannst du schon einige Formen von there is / there are / there isn't / there aren't entdecken.

There is (Kurzform: there's) und there are sind die bejahten ☺ Formen und sagen dir was es gibt / was vorhanden ist z.B. There is a garden = Es gibt einen Garten.

Die negativen ☹ Formen lauten there isn't / there aren't.

Achtung – nach there aren't steht meist das Wort any z.B. There aren't any baskets for me – Es gibt dort keine Körbchen für mich.

Fragen stellst du mit Is there...? und Are there any ...?

Is there a pool in your garden? Gibt es ein Schwimmbad in deinem Garten?

NOW YOU – choose the right form of ☺ there is / ☺ there are / ☹ there isn't / ☹ there aren't any / Is there...? Are there any...? and complete the sentences.

Winston's dream school.

At my dream school, _____ ☹ teachers, but _____ ☺ a lot of students and dogs. _____ ☹ desks, but _____ ☺ a basket in every classroom. _____ ☺ a swimming pool in the garden and _____ ☺ a lot of toys (= Spielzeug) to play with and _____ ☺ a playground, too.
_____ ☹ homework for students and dogs. In the afternoon _____ ☺ always time to go for a walk in the park. What about your school? _____ ☺ school dogs? _____ ☺ a pool, too?