

Listening comprehension task: Interview with Angelina Jolie Pitt on BBC Radio 4: “World on the Move”.

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/b07bjgqg>

I. True or false?	true	false
1. The numbers of displaced people worldwide have permanently risen since WWII.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. All refugees are first protected in camps and then moved to third countries for asylum.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
3. On average, refugees spend only little time in exile before returning home.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
4. The refugee system has always been a flawed model.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

II. Complete the sentences.

1. Today more people are heading towards Europe because they are running out of options/ the number of crises has risen/ this is their last resort.
2. Recently the spotlight has been on Europe, but Europe is neither making the greatest sacrifice nor is it at the center of the crisis.

III. Tick the correct answer(s).

The West needs to address the issue because	a	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	the number of refugees will increase.
	b	<input type="checkbox"/>	it is responsible for the problem.
	c	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	closing the doors will not solve the problem.

IV. True or false?	true	false
1. Jolie thinks that igniting people’s fear will not solve the problem.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. Governments need to ensure democratic consent on how much communities can contribute.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. There is no need to distinguish between economic migrants and asylum seekers.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
4. The massive refugee crisis is a result of long-term misguided politics.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
5. The crisis can be solved within one generation.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>