

Fracking: reading comprehension test

I. True or false. Correct the wrong sentences in your own words and give the lines.

	true	false
1. Jill Wiener is running for office because she has always wanted to be in politics.
2. She moved to Catskill to achieve this aim.
3. Fracking has become an important source of energy in the US.
4. It is a safe and clean fuel.
5. New technologies have helped companies to increase the production of natural gas.
6. Fracking requires the injection of large amounts of sand and water into the rock.
7. People who oppose the method worry about the poisoning of drinking water.

II. Multiple choice: Tick the correct box and give the lines.

8. As fracking increases	<input type="checkbox"/> energy will become cheaper.
	<input type="checkbox"/> renewables may lose out.
	<input type="checkbox"/> more people will die from contaminated water.
9. Opposition groups have been founded because	<input type="checkbox"/> too much water is used in the process of fracking.
	<input type="checkbox"/> the industry has acknowledged contamination.
	<input type="checkbox"/> people are afraid of the impact on their health.
10. According to Wiener, proponents of fracking	<input type="checkbox"/> take up a prominent stance.
	<input type="checkbox"/> know little about the dangerous consequences.
	<input type="checkbox"/> are in the majority.
11. Many people are for drilling because they	<input type="checkbox"/> hope for jobs and tax revenues.
	<input type="checkbox"/> are not afraid of environmental damages.
	<input type="checkbox"/> are not affected.

III. Finish the sentences in your own words and give the lines.

12. Wiener can understand landowners and dairy farmers because
13. Fracking is a social issue because
14. Although the new technology might bring economic advantages
15. Industry promotes the view	