

WRITING in “An Inspector Calls”

Assignments (~200 words each)

Eva makes a speech to her workmates, arguing that a strike is necessary.

Eva’s diary entry after the strike has been broken.

Eva Smith tries to argue but Mr Birling sacks her all the same. (dialogue)

Eva Smith tries to sell Sheila Birling a dress. (dialogue)

Sheila Birling’s letter asking the manager to sack Eva Smith.

The manager tries explain to Eva Smith why she is being sacked. (dialogue).

Gerald chats Eva up at the Palace Bar and takes her away from there. (dialogue)

Eva’s diary entry about meeting Gerald at the Palace Bar and what happened after.

Eva’s diary entry about meeting Eric.

Eric has to admit to Eva where his money has come from. (dialogue)

Eva’s letter to Mrs Birling’s committee.

Eva confronts the committee. (dialogue)

The ladies on the committee consider Eva’s case and argue among themselves. (dialogue)

Official memorandum why the committee will not support Eva Smith.

Newspaper article about Eva’s death, defending/attacking the Birlings and Crofts.

After Eva’s death, one of Eva’s former workmates makes a speech calling for a new strike.

Class Test

Choose one of the following. Write about 300 words.

1. Eva Smith is talking to a colleague, Dora, just after Mr Birling has sacked her. (Eva / Dora)
2. Gerald Croft tells Eva that she has to leave the apartment and why. (Gerald / Eva)
3. During the summer when he sees “Daisy” regularly, Gerald writes a truthful letter to Sheila telling her that he is not worthy of her love. He never sends it, of course. (Gerald – Sheila)

WRITING in “An Inspector Calls”

Assignments (~200 words each)

Eva makes a speech to her workmates, arguing that a strike is necessary.

Eva’s diary entry after the strike has been broken.

Eva Smith tries to argue but Mr Birling sacks her all the same. (dialogue)

Eva Smith tries to sell Sheila Birling a dress. (dialogue)

Sheila Birling’s letter asking the manager to sack Eva Smith.

The manager tries explain to Eva Smith why she is being sacked. (dialogue).

Gerald chats Eva up at the Palace Bar and takes her away from there. (dialogue)

Eva’s diary entry about meeting Gerald at the Palace Bar and what happened after.

Eva’s diary entry about meeting Eric.

Eric has to admit to Eva where his money has come from. (dialogue)

Eva’s letter to Mrs Birling’s committee.

Eva confronts the committee. (dialogue)

The ladies on the committee consider Eva’s case and argue among themselves. (dialogue)

Official memorandum why the committee will not support Eva Smith.

Newspaper article about Eva’s death, defending/attacking the Birlings and Crofts.

After Eva’s death, one of Eva’s former workmates makes a speech calling for a new strike.

Class Test

Choose one of the following. Write about 300 words.

1. Eva Smith is talking to a colleague, Dora, just after Mr Birling has sacked her. (Eva / Dora)
2. Gerald Croft tells Eva that she has to leave the apartment and why. (Gerald / Eva)
3. During the summer when he sees “Daisy” regularly, Gerald writes a truthful letter to Sheila telling her that he is not worthy of her love. He never sends it, of course. (Gerald – Sheila)