Britain and Europe: Landesbildungsserver Baden-Württemberg Part 1 -- Solutions invasions / threat of invasion the Continent in general generally seen as "foreign" / "other" / "different" Find the video here. avoiding political alliances, fending for oneself splendid Britain officially joins the EC isolation: attitude up to WW I 1973 island mentality political alliances ( out of political necessity trade with the Continent seen as positive! 1963: French president de Gaulle Britain and Europe vetoes Britain's first application to loss of former colonies 1969: de Gaulle turns down Britain's Commonwealth trade in EC applications second application decline industries not as British problems after WW II competitive as Continental ones / EEC Suez crisis 1956 feels like a some of the members; some defeat Scandinavian countries, Britain, Austria, Switzerland aims; no customs tariffs between FINISHED? AND NOW... members and little political interference EFTA ...watch Part 2 of the series and... founded in 1960 ...complete the second mind map!