Dear Mr. Osborne,

I am very happy to let you know that Zoey had another great week in school! She has been very focused and attentive in class and contributed to our class discussions. Zoey’s homework is always complete and on time and she doesn’t mind doing extra work! Yesterday, she did a wonderful presentation on panda bears and got an A+ for it. When she thanked me for it, I told her that it was her own achievement and that I was very proud of her.

I am happy that Zoey is in my class. I wish I had more students like her!

With warm regards,

Mrs. Lu

Dear Mrs. Anderson,

I am worried about Andrew, because he has been very tired in class lately. In class, he often has his eyes closed and doesn't follow the lessons. When I call his name, he doesn't even hear me! I have tried to talk to him about it, but he doesn't want to speak to me and doesn't answer any of my questions.

 to appreciate = schätzen

Are you making sure Andrew gets enough sleep? When does Andrew go to bed on weekdays? Is he on the computer a lot?

I would appreciate it, if you could call the school office and make an appointment with me. I think we should sit down together and talk.

Best regards,

Mrs. Lu

Subject: HELP!

Dear Mrs. Gardner,

This is to let you know that Cameron´s behavior has been really bad lately!!

First she has been late a lot. When she walks into the classroom, she doesn´t even apologize and starts talking to her classmates! When I confront her, she only says "Others talk in class as well and you only pick on me!" When I give her extra work as a form of punishment, she doesn´t do it and says that I am being "unfair" to her!!!

Whenever I try to talk to her, she just turns around and walks away. This is completely unacceptable!!!!

I feel frustrated and helpless and need you to help me in this matter!!!

I think your husband and you should have a serious talk with Cameron. You should also consider giving her some form of punishment. Maybe you can take away her pocket money or her PC for a while?

Thank you for your support.
